1. Welcome & Introductions

¹ “Current members” is used for internal purposes to refer to individuals who either are or have been students in UNIL’s English Department who wish to participate more closely in the organization of SCOPE events and activities and who the committee communicates with informally. This practice does not seek to come into conflict with Article 3 of SCOPE’s statuts, which states that all students regularly enrolled in courses taught by the English section are members.

c.F SCOPE’s statuts: 3.1 Est membre d’office, tout-e étudiant-e régulièrement inscrit-e à des enseignements dispensés par la section d’Anglais.

Malory welcomes the assembly at 14.16. She is conducting the AG on Leah's behalf, and therefore isn't counted in the votes.

3. Previous events

a. Game Night (Amélie Dauban)

Quite a lot of people attended and everyone brought their own games. Amélie mentions that she did not have a lot to do in terms of organising, as most of it was already agreed upon. It took place on 19th of November at the CAP, and was co-organised alongside several associations (Helios, Paragone, No Cap, Ciné-club).

b. Team Building (Leah Didisheim)

It was at Leah's mom's place. Malory reads Leah's feedback through text, as she isn't present; she thanks people for the good times and the food everyone brought. It took place on November 7th, and we had our traditional potluck dinner. It was really nice. We thank Leah and her mom for allowing us to host the event at their place.

c. Improv.ppt (Lina Rosinander and William Flores)

This took place on the 12th of November. Lina says that only two people showed up, so this session was over very quickly. On the bright side, she points out that through recycling presentations and due to the fact that attendance was low this time around, we still have unused PowerPoints for the future iteration of Improv.ppt.

d. Talk (Leah Didisheim and Amélie Dauban)

It took place on October 28th. Leah and Amélie coordinated this event together. Matthew Scully talked about “Narratives and Poetics of Desire in Contemporary North American Literature”. Not many staff members attended, as there was apparently another event at the same time. The talk itself was very nice, Matthew was a great speaker.

e. Christmas Party (Leah Didisheim, Andreia Abreu Remigio and Lisa Ziegert)

It took place on Wednesday 10th December. DJ Digby was not present this year, as he retired. More people came compared to last year; some of the section's staff was present as well. There were plans to bring live music (through Kevin Curran and Matthew Scully) this time, but it did not happen. We had a playlist and karaoke instead, which was fun even if not many people tried and we mostly ended up singing together. This year, tupperwares were brought, so no soup was wasted. The cookies from Le Cozy were amazing as usual. Through a text read by Malory, both Leah and Andreia remind people that booking the Refuge du Censuy well in advance is important; Lisa points out that to do so, SCOPE usually reaches out to Agnieszka, as she is the one booking typically.

4. Clubs

a. Creative Writing Club (Current organizers: Leah Didisheim, Martina Quadroni)

Since Leah is absent at the moment and Martina has been quite busy, the club is currently a bit dormant, but the aim is to have at least a couple of sessions this year.

b. Food + Poetry Club (Current organizers: Lisa Ziegert)

Lisa says it's a bit dormant at the moment. She thinks of organising it at the CAP, and she would like to open it up a bit more and turn it into “food + any kind of writing” club, so people could bring in a quote, poem, or text in the general sense.

5. Money-Making

a. Book sale

We still have books in the locker room downstairs. Cindy briefly explains how we usually conduct the book sale (on the couches in the section's hallways). We aim to do it again this semester; Valeriia and Lisa are interested in co-organising this. The date will follow later.

b. Notebook sale

We still have notebooks available.

c. Pen sale

Pens are also still available.

6. Upcoming events

a. Talk with Patrizia Zanella (Laura Maric and Cindy Zhang)

This talk will be given by a post-doc researcher, Patrizia Zanella, who expressed interest to SCOPE members last semester. The subject will be “Reclaiming Indigenous Languages through Indigenous Literatures”. It will take place on 28th of April, at 6:15pm, so students whose classes finish at 6 have time to join. Cindy and Laura are co-organising this event. Cindy says that they think of reaching out to Isis and Agnieszka to advertise the event.

b. Game night

It will probably take place in mid-April, according to the inter-association group chat. Amélie is the SCOPE member in contact with that inter-association group chat. More details will follow, but so far, SCOPE, Helios, Stu.de and the No Cap have confirmed their involvement.

c. Pub Quiz (Malory Goy and Alicia Baudois)

This will take place on the 30th of April, at the Qwertz bar. This will be the second time we host the pub quiz there; the owner was happy to welcome us again. Malory mentions that the next steps are doing the posters and coming up with questions.

d. Improv.ppt.

Lina and Radina agree that they will co-organise this. The date is still to be determined; but as Lina pointed out, since only a couple of people showed up to last semester's Improv.ppt, we still have unused presentations for this semester's session.

e. Other events?

No suggestions.

7. Team Building

Malory introduces the event. We will surely have a potluck dinner. The organiser is responsible for the time and place; Leah will be organising and hosting SCOPE members for team building again.

8. Budget & Accounting

a. Spring 2026 Budget Projection

Lisa presents the planned budget. There is money for all clubs and activities. If people need more money, they have to reach out to Lisa before spending it, take a picture of the receipt, and send it to her, so that it can be reimbursed.

9. Other

Malory reads the messages of two SCOPE members leaving: Andreia and William. Additionally, a student reached out through email to join the asso, but couldn't be there for the AG (Valentina Dallinger).

Malory closes the assembly at 14.47.
